

Infectious Diseases During Mass Gatherings

(Activity Code: AGI-03-P116)

October 30th 2022, 6-9pm,

Ground Floor Classroom, Itqan Clinical Simulation & Innovation Center

Target Audience: All Healthcare Professions

Aim: To highlight the importance of mitigating the risk of infectious diseases spread during mass gatherings

Speakers:

Dr. Muna Al Maslamani: Medical Director-Communicable Disease Center, Medical Director of All COVID-19 Cases in State of Qatar, Senior Consultant -Transplant Infectious Disease

Dr. Mohamed AbuKhattab: Sr. Consultant Infectious Diseases/Travel and Tropical Medicine - Medicine Department, Chairperson Communicable Disease Center Clinical Practice Guidelines Committee, HMC

Dr. Khalil Al Ismail: Head Hospital Infection Control- Communicable Disease Center, HMC

Dr. Mohamed Sallam: Public Health physician, surveillance and outbreak, Ministry of Public Health

Time & Speaker	Schedule & Learning Objectives
6:00-6:10pm	Welcoming & introduction
6:10 – 7:00pm Dr Muna Al Maslamani	Outline potential Infectious diseases spread during mass gathering
7:00-7:30pm Dr Mohamed AbuKhattab	Explain the role of vaccination as the most effective infection prevention strategy
7:30-7:40pm	Coffee Break
7:40 -8:25pm Dr. Khalil Al Ismail	Describe risk mitigation plans and Infection Prevention Control (IPC) measures implementation
8:25-9:00pm Dr. Mohamed Sallam	Discuss active surveillance of emerging infections during mass gatherings

* The scientific planning committee has reviewed all disclosed financial relationships of speakers, moderators, facilitators and/or authors in advance of this CPD activity and has implemented procedures to manage any potential or real conflicts of interest.

* "This activity is an Accredited group learning activity (Category 1) as defined by Ministry of Public Health's Department of Healthcare Professions - Accreditation Section and is approved for a maximum number of 3 Hours."

* "CPD-HP (QU—Health) is accredited by Ministry of Public Health's Department of Healthcare Professions - Accreditation Section (DHP – AS) as a provider of continuing professional development."

جامعة قطر
QATAR UNIVERSITY

الصحة
HEALTH

برنامج التطوير المهني المستمر للعاملين في القطاع الصحي
Continuing Professional Development of Health Professionals

Dr. Muna Al Maslamani, MBBS, CABMS, MSc-HCM-RCSI

Medical Director-Communicable Disease Center
Medical Director of All COVID-19 Cases in State of Qatar
Senior Consultant -Transplant Infectious Disease

Dr. Muna Al Maslamani is the Medical Director of Communicable Disease Center and the appointed Medical Director of All COVID-19 Cases in State of Qatar. She is a Senior Consultant in Transplant Infectious Diseases and the Assistant Head of Infectious Diseases Division–Medicine Department at Hamad Medical Corporation, Qatar. Dr. Muna added an Msc-HealthCare Management (RCSI-Bahrain) and IHI Fellowship (Institute of Healthcare Improvement & Hamad Medical Corporation) to her list of educational achievements which includes MBBS, Certification Arab Board Medical Specialization-Internal Medicine and Certification of Complete HMC-Infectious Disease Fellowship Training Program. In 2021, she became a Fellow of Infectious Disease Society of America (FIDSA).

In addition from clinical responsibilities, she also holds several administrative and academic positions in and outside HMC, namely Vice Chairperson for Quality and Patient Safety–Medicine, Fellowship Program Director for Infectious Disease, Associate Professor of Clinical Medicine in Weill Cornell Medicine-Qatar (WCM-Q) and Clinical Associate Professor of Internal Medicine & Infectious Diseases in the Department of Clinical Academic Education, College of Medicine at Qatar University.

Dr. Muna is a great role model who is committed to improving the quality of patient care and takes necessary steps to motivate others in doing the same. She is a Fellow appointed by Planetree International and Person-Centered Care Executive Champion of Communicable Disease Center. Her role as a sponsor for the Clinical Care Improvement Training Program (CCITP) of Quality Division and her involvement in IHI Best Care Always Campaign has produced 55 Quality Improvement Projects till date. She received various Intramural and External research grants and was able to partner with international researchers in conducting clinical research and published 67 publications till date. Several Leadership and Service awards which she received for her achievements are an evidence of her passion and commitment towards work and patient care.

جامعة قطر
QATAR UNIVERSITY

الصحة
HEALTH

برنامج التطوير المهني المستمر للعاملين في القطاع الصحي
Continuing Professional Development of Health Professionals

Dr Mohammed Abukhattab MBBS, CABM, FACP, CTH, DTM&H (Royal College London), FFTM RCPS (Glasg) , FIDSA

Sr. Consultant Infectious Diseases/Travel and Tropical Medicine - Medicine Department.

Chairperson Communicable Disease Center Clinical Practice
Guidelines Committee, Hamad Medical Corporation.

Graduated from Sudan 1999, Arab Board certification in Internal Medicine 2007.

Completed infectious disease fellowship in HMC in 2008,

In 2018 granted the fellowship of American College of Physicians
(FACP)

Showing special interest in the field of travel medicine,played major role in establishing the first travel medicine clinic in HMC in 2017 ,certified with certificate in travel health from international society of travel medicine (CTH) in 2017 and fellow of the faculty in travel medicine (FFTM) Royal College Glasgow also certified in the field of tropical medicine from Royal College of London with Diploma in Tropical Medicine & Hygiene

In the field of infectious disease, fellow of infectious disease society of America (FIDSA)

With special interest in educational programs such as fellowships and teaching medical; students, appointed as Clinical Associate Professor Medical collage Qatar University

Had more than 60 publications including original article, case reports and poster presentations.

Chairing a lot of committees like CDC sepsis committee, CDC CPG committee and CIS optimization committee ,also leading inpatient services in communicable disease center (CDC),

Dr. Khalil Al Ismail. Master Degree in Public epidemiology, bachelor degree in nursing

Head Hospital Infection Control- Communicable Disease Center

Mr. Khalil is an infection control professional with interest in dealing with communicable disease like Tuberculosis (TB), MERS-CoV, COVID 19, HIV and other infectious disease. He has a master degree in Public health – Epidemiology, has publication for Pulmonary TB among Healthcare workers, The first consecutive 5000 patients with Coronavirus Disease 2019 from Qatar and others.

Mr. Khalil currently works as Head Hospital Infection Control in Communicable Disease Center in which he had a vital role in Pandemic risk assessment, planning, and response to major incidents at the level of HMC and at a national level.

He has more than 12 years' experience in infection prevention and control with different type of patients, from immunocompromised patient with cancer disease in addition to patients that has infectious disease which might be a risk for the community. Had vital role in establishing and monitoring infection prevention programs in CDC, Al Wakra Hospital, National Center for Cancer Care & Research and other facilities.

Dr. Mohamed Ahmed Sallam

Current professional position(s): Public Health physician, surveillance and outbreak, MOPH

Mohamed has been working as public health physician at MOPH in Qatar for more than 10 years. Previously, he worked for American hospital in Qatar and before that he had worked for police hospital in Egypt. Mohamed graduated from medical school, Cairo university in 2000, obtained master's degree in anesthesia in 2007 and diploma of epidemiology from liver school of tropical medicine.

Mohamed has been team leader for covid-19 investigation team, he is a rapporteur of the national STIs working group in Qatar and focal person of the event-based surveillance in Qatar.

Mohamed has 2 publications and co-authorships several other publications.